My artistic friends assert I have the soul of an artist! This means that I am creative in my approach to solving problems and a forward-looking personality who thinks BIG! A 'restless mind' always looking for a new idea that can become a new product, I actively pursue new initiatives. I embrace, and often initiate, change with an intuitive grasp of how change is essential to achieve desired outcomes and growth. An advocate of the benefits of technology, I promote the implementation of new tools. I influence most people with my warmth and want to lead others by my example. I have a positive sense of humour and build confidence in others. My expectation is to always make possible the impossible!
